

Canines, Cats and Cabernet Update

By Sue Bobek, Community Relations Coordinator

Left to right - Kevin Daugherty, Owner/Operator of Quincy Cellars winery; Jeff Lubi, Executive Director of Chaut. Co. Humane Society; Camilla Smith; Maggie Irwin; Shannon Bessette; Stephanie Zwyghuizen; Sue Bobek, Community Relations Coordinator CCHS.

we are looking forward to it becoming an annual addition to our fundraising schedule. A big THANK YOU goes out to all our auction donors, Quincy Winery, Ludwig Auctions, auction bidders, and all the board members, staff and volunteers that made this a huge success with over $10,667 raised. This will help us to continue to care for all the stray, unwanted and homeless animals in our shelter.

The “Canines, Cats and Cabernet” fundraiser, held on July 22nd was a big success. There was 65 live auction and 36 silent auction items. The wine tasting, provided by Quincy Cellars of Ripley, NY, was enjoyed throughout the evening. Chuck Ludwig of Ludwig Auctions kept the action moving with his lively patter and humor. We were privileged to have two Jamestown Firefighters stop by and help to auction off their donation of dinner for 8 at the Jamestown Fire Station. This was the first time that the Chautauqua County Humane Society has held this event, but

City of Jamestown Firefighters auction off a dinner served at the fire station.