

Reward for Information

The Chautauqua County Humane Society is accepting contributions to be used as a reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the stabbing of "Jack", a two year old horse, that occurred on Monday, February 22, 2010 between the hours of 6:30pm and 6:30am (2/23/10) in the Ross Mills area.

Any person(s) with information about this incident is requested to contact the Town of Ellicott Police Department at 665-7083.

Please make checks payable to the Chautauqua County Humane Society and mail to CCHS 2825 Strunk Road, Jamestown, NY 14701 ATTN: Reward Fund.

Individuals should check with their tax advisors as to the deductibility of the contribution. Please visit the Chautauqua County Humane Society website at www.spcapets.com for updated reward fund totals.

NOTE:

If no arrest is made before April 15, 2012, all funds received for this purpose will be used by the Chautauqua County Humane Society for animal cruelty investigations as per the wishes of Jack's owner.
